INTRODUCTION

A true architectural masterpiece, Waldorf Astoria Amsterdam has the privilege of being housed in six magnificent 17th and 18th century canal palaces. The rich heritage captured within the walls of this unique property is solely matched by its unparalleled location on the iconic ‘Gentlemen’s Canal’ – the greatest of them all.

Waldorf Astoria Amsterdam is an extraordinary stage to host a memorable event. Our Event Planners will ensure that everything is simply perfect.

A warm welcome awaits you at Waldorf Astoria Amsterdam.

TASTE OF THE GOLDEN AGE

Let us take you back to the 17th Century, the time of the Golden Age. It all starts at the Golden Bend along the Gentlemen’s Canal.

Our Bellman will await you with torches, our dressed for the occasion waiters will provide you our bespoke True Waldorf Service at your table covered with authentic silver cutlery, along with menus marked with an old-fashioned wax seal.

We will provide you everything for an Unforgettable Golden Age Experience.
Nestled in the heart of the Waldorf Astoria Amsterdam, The Vault Bar is Amsterdam’s most unforgettable cocktail destination. Build in the original vault of the long established MeesPierson bank.

Anchored in history, the sophisticated décor of the Vault exudes the timeless ambiance of an elegant speakeasy bar that will surprise by an avant-garde selection of cocktails. Creativity only defines the boundaries of this contemporary cocktail bar, which yet still showcases the original bank lockers.

Shake your own favorite cocktail, provided by our own bartenders will make you a true mixologist.

Wynand Fockink Produces is a liqueur distillery with more than 70 Dutch liqueurs and Jenevers.

Discover the filled history of the distillery with a private tour and taste the brandy, liqueurs, Jenevers, bitter in the old fashioned way of bowing to the drink and slurping the first sip from a traditional tulip glass. Cheers!

Combine with a unique kind of transportation, e.g. horse carriage, or bikes.
We strive to impress all our guests with our Legendary True Waldorf Service, which reflects the level of passion and luxury.

In our masterclass, we will share some of our secrets of how we impress our guests and how you can implement this in your business.

‘Luxury is the sum of details executed naturally to excellence and its cohesion produces unforgettable moments’ - Roberto Payer, General Manager Waldorf Astoria Amsterdam.

The story begins here

Time to discover, some experiences are right under your nose.

The 17th and 18th centuries canal palaces in which Waldorf Astoria Amsterdam reside in are full of history.

Indulge yourself in the Golden Age during a comprehensive tour of the hotel and and truly feel how they used to live three centuries ago.
Unwind after a day full of meetings in the private salon boat of Waldorf Astoria Amsterdam.

The best way to discover our beloved capital is by sailing through our historic ring of canals, which is originated in the Golden Age. Step out of the meetings rooms directly into the boat.

Take a glass of bubbles in your hand while enjoying delicacies created by our Two-Michelin star Chef Sidney Schutte to discover the city in a unique way.

Make your dinner complete with a pre-reception to indulge yourself in a wide collection of beautiful wines.

Let yourself be advised by our Sommeliers to taste and find your perfect wine. Our Sommeliers will share the rich history and stories of the wines while they will combine your flavor with the matched wines.

In the evening you can experience the tasteful combinations of the dishes and wines.
Waldorf Astoria Amsterdam has the exclusive possibility to show you a unique spot in Amsterdam, named Chandlers Warehouse. This is an old warehouse served to supply the ships with supplies before they sailed over the ocean many years ago.

They kept this location intact and nowadays they showcase the worldwide largest private collection of the Louis Vuitton suitcases.

In the heart of Amsterdam, one of the well-known canals named the Keizersgracht. On this canal, there is the house of the Amsterdam regent Family Van Loon located.

In this house, you can catch a glimpse of the living culture of one of the powerful families of the 18th century. Willem van Loon, formal owner of the house, a founding member of the V.O.C., the Dutch East India Company.

Savor a tasteful dinner of our talented Chefs in one of the finest houses in the city.
Our garden has the privilege to be the largest private garden in Amsterdam.

During the flower season, there are more than 7000 tulips in bloom. In the middle of the garden, there is located a historic small Tea House a cosy and private place.

In the middle of our garden, between the beautiful flowers, you can savor the well-known Waldorf Astoria Afternoon Tea.

Take a step outside to discover your creativity.

A painter provides you the perfect hand tools to make your own souvenir to take home with.

In our garden, you will have enough inspiration for our beautiful artwork, flowers, and our unique little tea house.
Take a moment to unwind and refill.

You will have exclusive access to awarded World Best Spa, our Guerlain Spa. Our talented beauty therapists will deliver a unique and personal experience to every single guest.

While you indulge in the peaceful ambiance of our spa, you can enjoy the sweet and savory treats of our Afternoon Tea.

CREATE YOUR OWN DESSERT

Our pasty chefs led by our Two-Michelin star Chef Sidney Schutte, have enough inspiration to challenge you to create a tasteful dessert.

Let surprise yourself by sipping the wine pairing suggestions of our Sommeliers while you are creating your own tasteful dessert.

If you are lucky, our Pastry Chefs will share the secrets of the kitchen with you!